Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. McCarter Die in Royal Jubilee Hospital After Collision on Hillside Avenue Between Cars Driven by E. W. Bird and Francis R. Findlay on Sunday

TWO persons were killed and five injured, one critically, in an automobile accident at the corner of Hillside Avenue and Blackwood Street, shortly after 12:30 p.m. Sunday. The dead are: Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. McCarter, eighty-four-year-old couple, who resided with their son, Dr. Alexander McCarter, 1130 Summit Avenue.

The injured: Mrs. E. W. Bird, 2823 Dwyer Road, fractured collarbone, fractured pelvis, broken ribs and ruptured bladder. Bird, employee of the Begg Motor Company, fractured collarbone, fractured ribs and fractured pelvis. Joan Bird, aged fifteen years, fractured pelvis. Elizabeth Bird, aged three years, cuts and bruises about the body. Dr. Gordon Kenning is attending the patients in the Royal Jubilee Hospital.

CRASH AT INTERSECTION
The accident, one of the most serious in recent years in Greater Victoria, occurred when an automobile, driven west on Hillside Avenue, by Francis R. Findlay, aged twenty-one years, 2619 Blanshard Street, was in collision with the car being driven north on Blackwood Street by Mr. Bird.

Mr. Findlay, who was alone in his car at the time of the crash, suffered only minor cuts and abrasions and a shaking up. The automobile he was driving was registered in the name of Gordon H. Simpson, of the B.C. Coast Service.

ARREST AFTER DARING HOLDUP

Police Fire Shots at Fleeing Bandits—Suspects Taken Later

VANCOUVER, Sept. 30.—Suspects of being one of a pair of gunmen who held up the Vancouver Drug store at Nanaimo and Hastings Streets tonight, and included officers in a running fight, a man whose identity police refused to reveal, was arrested and is being held for investigation.

The man was arrested after he had called police and reported his car had been stolen. Police said his automobile and licence were identical with that which the gunmen used in their escape. The stolen car informant made his call a half-hour after police were outdistanced by the alleged bandit car.

DRUG STORE HELD UP
Earlier, two masked and armed men walked into the drug store, held up Bruce Boomer, manager, and N. Bloom, a customer, and while a bandit kept the pair covered, his companion rifled the till of $32. They made their escape in an automobile in which a third man waited.

Some time later Detective Superintendent H. Darling, Inspector W. C. Grant and Sgt. A. S. Hann saw a car parked in the 500 block West Union Street. As they drew up beside it they saw a man answering the description of one of the drug store bandits. Before they could order the suspects out of the car the latter started their car and dashed away.

SHOTS FIRED AT CAR
For fifteen minutes the officers kept up the chase through the east end of the city but were finally outdistanced and lost their quarry after one of the men in the fleeing car had fired two shots at the police car. Neither of the shots took effect.

VANCOUVER CITY PLANS BUILDING

Committee Instructed to Call for Tenders for Civic Centre at Strathcona Park

VANCOUVER, Sept. 30.—The city council today instructed its budget committee to call for tenders for construction of a city hall on Strathcona Park. The building will cost $750,000.

Tenders will also be called for the $400,000 bridge to join Terminal Avenue and First Avenue over the False Creek flats, east of Main Street. The city will bear $150,000 of the bridge cost, the Great Northern Railway and the Canadian National Railway Companies paying the balance.

The two projects are chief items in a $1,282,000 works programme to be financed by sale of baby bonds.

Removing Car From Scene After Crash

Colliding with the car driven by Francis R. Findlay, Sunday, shortly after 12:30 p.m., at the corner of Hillside Avenue and Blackwood Street, E. W. Bird's automobile, in which Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. McCarter were riding with the Bird family, crashed into the curb and hurled six feet into the air, plunged down a four-foot bank inside the sidewalk, and came to rest on its side. Work of raising the battered machine is shown in the photograph above. With wheels smashed, windows broken, left door torn off, upholstery torn, frame bent and body crumpled, the car is estimated a total loss.

SHARP WARNING IS GIVEN THAT SALMON FISHING TOO HEAVY
George J. Alexander, Deputy Commissioner, Draws Attention to the Doubling of Fishing Gear in Water and Falling Off in Catch

WARNING that the salmon canning industry of British Columbia has been much over-expanded and that the doubling of gear in the water is producing lesser returns from a limited supply of fish available is given by George J. Alexander, deputy commissioner of fisheries for British Columbia, in the annual report of his department for 1934, now available.

In three paragraphs, Mr. Alexander puts his case as follows: "An impartial survey of the salmon-canning industry as it obtains in British Columbia at the present time reveals the very significant fact that this industry has been very much over-expanded, when viewed in conjunction with the fact that there is a definite limit to the supply of raw fish available in any given fishing season."

LIMIT REACHED
"The limit of expansion imposed by the availability of raw material has long ago been reached and further economic expansion need not be looked for until the supply of raw material (salmon) has materially increased. At the present rate of exploitation this cannot be expected in the near future."

"HOT CARGO" BAN LIFTED
Longshoremen to Release Ships Tied Up as Bearers of "Unfair" Goods
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—P. Longshoremen resumed work on the San Francisco waterfront today after a "hot cargo" ban was lifted by a federal court. The ban, which had been in effect since last year's strike, threatened renewed trouble in a letter to the waterfront employers' association, Harry Bridges, president of the San Francisco local of the International Longshoremen's Association, charged that hiring was being carried on outside the jointly-controlled hall, from which the men are dispatched to work.

SAYS AWARD VIOLATED
Bridges declared this was a violation of the award agreement made by a Federal mediation board after last year's strike. The award set up the hall, to be controlled jointly by the employers and the I.L.A.

REIGHTERS RELEASED
Lifting of the cargo ban released the freighter point Guard, tied up here for two weeks because union maritime workers refused to handle cargo, and from British Columbia where a strike was in progress. The freighters Gordon State and West Malacca at Vancouver were also released.

Mr. Bennett expressed confidence in the support of the people of Canada for the Empire trade agreement.

Man Injured in Fall Down Cliff Rescued From Wild Country

Richard P. Locke Forced to Wait for Thirty Hours
While Party Makes Arduous Trip to Carry
Him Out to Safety

VERNON, Sept. 30 (C.P.)—Richard P. Locke lay in hospital here tonight while physicians started an examination to determine the extent of injuries suffered by the twenty-four-year-old vacationist when he plunged down a 180-foot cliff near Sicamous yesterday while on a fishing trip.

He was rushed here by ambulance after rescuers took him to Sicamous from the Yard Creek Canyon where he had lain for nearly thirty-six hours after tumbling over the cliff.

Locke was on a fishing expedition with George McNeill and Howard Urquhart, both of Vernon, when the accident occurred.

Unable to move his injured companion because of his serious condition and the rugged nature of the country, McNeill and Urquhart were forced to seek aid in Sicamous, twelve miles distant.

LARGE PARTY ORGANIZED
Provincial Constable Wolfe and Forest Ranger Fraser went to the scene but found further aid necessary. A large party was organized and after several hours the injured man was taken to Sicamous. From

WAS MEMBER OF EARLY FAMILY

Miss Sarah Finlayson, Native Daughter, Dies at Residence Here

Miss Sarah Finlayson, daughter of one of the pioneer families of the city, whose name is known to every old-timer, died on Sunday evening at her home, 1009 Terrace Avenue. She was seventy-five years of age.

Born in 1860 at the old family home, which stood about opposite the site of the present Lemon & Gonnason mill, Miss Finlayson had spent practically her whole life in Victoria, where her kindly and charitable nature had endeared her to a wide circle of intimate friends as much as her unostentatious philanthropies had to the entire community which she directly or indirectly touched in this way. At an earlier time she was a faithful attendant of St. John's Church when the family lived in that parish, but latterly, for many years, until advancing age limited her activities, she was a devoted member of St. Mary's, Oak Bay.

WAS MAYOR OF CITY
Her father, the late Hon. Roderick Finlayson, one of the pioneers who came here with the Hudson's Bay Company, and later served as one of the early mayors of the city, was a Scotman, native of Ross-shire, who came to Canada in 1839. Four years later he was sent to Fort Victoria by the Hudson's Bay Company, as second in command, and in charge of the fort until the arrival of Sir James Douglas in 1848. He was then created accountant.

In 1853 he was appointed by Governor Blanshard to the council created to look after the affairs of the colony. In 1859 he became chief factor of the Hudson's Bay Company and remained a member of the executive council until it ceased to exist. He made a lengthy visit to the Old Land in 1872, the year of his retirement, but subsequently came back to Victoria to live.

THOSE WHO SURVIVE
The surviving immediate members of the family are three sisters, Mrs. J. C. Keith, Vancouver; Mrs. A. B. Cotton, Victoria, and Miss Agnes Finlayson. Three brothers predeceased her, Duncan, Roderick and William. There are nine nieces living.

The funeral, which will be private, will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3:45 o'clock. It is requested that no flowers be sent.

SUNSHINE INN OPENS TODAY

Meals to Be Served on Premises Every Afternoon—Donations Requested

Sunshine Inn, 730 Pandora Avenue, which has been closed down for its past three months, will reopen its doors this afternoon and will serve meals every day, from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. The institution, which has been of such a benefit to needy citizens in the community, will remain open during the winter months.

The Inn was organized by Captain Burges J. Gadsden on January 4, 1932 and its doors were continuously open until July 1 this year, when, owing to improved conditions, it was found unnecessary to operate during the summer months. Particularly needy cases have been provided for during the summer by the issuance of meal orders on local restaurants.

VOLUNTEER WORKERS
It is expected, however, during October that increased demands will make it expedient in the interests of economy, to again serve meals on the premises. Volunteer workers have already signified their intention of assisting this worthy project as in the past. Donations of food or money will be gratefully received at Sunshine Inn.

Since the Inn was opened nearly four years ago, 293,674 meals have been served to needy residents of Victoria and district, free of cost.

Sunshine Inn is operated by a voluntary board of citizens headed by F. E. Winslow, chairman, the members being Mayor David Leeming, R. H. B. Kerr, Col. F. A. Lindsay, G. A. A. Heben, secretary, and Capt. Gadsden, who is the manager.

Elopement Foiled By Gas Shortage

REGINA, Sept. 30 (C.P.)—"Elopement" in a stolen car of a twelve-year-old girl and her thirteen-year-old "boy friend," ended in disillusionment four miles from Regina, during the week-end. The automobile ran out of gasoline and the juvenile "lovers" had to walk home—to face paternal wrath.

Shattered Cars Following Fatality

With frames twisted, bodies crumpled and several wheels broken, the two cars that were involved in the accident at the corner of Hillside Avenue and Blackwood Street, Sunday, are shown above. The top photograph, taken in the city police yard, shows the extensive damage done to the front of the sedan that was driven by Francis R. Findley. The lower picture gives a view of the side of E. W. Bird's machine, in which Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. McCarter were riding.

Delegates at Geneva Are Now at Work on New Plan for Peace

1. The Council would endeavor to decide who was the aggressor.
2. It would decide in principle on the application of sanctions against the aggressor.
3. It would specify the sanctions to be applied, and just how and by whom they were to be applied.

Meanwhile "practical difficulties" began to emerge prominently in informal conversations as to the application of sanctions against Italy if hostilities begin and if the Council decides sanctions are justified and necessary.

IN TIGHT PLACE
Austria and Switzerland—both bordering on Italy and connecting Italy and Germany—were in a tight place when sanctions were mentioned.

NO CONFIRMATION
LONDON, Sept. 30 (AP)—Recurring reports, both from Paris and Geneva, that Great Britain has addressed an inquiry to France to learn what the latter would do in the case of an unprovoked attack on the British Navy in the Mediterranean Sea, were neither confirmed nor denied in official quarters tonight.

In diplomatic circles, however, it was believed unlikely Britain would address such an inquiry to France on the heels of the note of Sir Samuel Hoare, Foreign Secretary, which did not indicate what action Britain would take in any specific incident in Europe.

Diplomats further agreed it was unlikely Britain would expect to get a solid French commitment on a hypothetical case unless this country was prepared to reciprocate—something the note to France indicated Britain was not prepared to do.

"SPECIFIC QUESTIONS"
PARIS, Sept. 30 (AP)—No definite confirmation was forthcoming here tonight of the report that Great Britain has asked for an expression of France's attitude in the event Italy should, without provocation, attack the British fleet in the Mediterranean.

But one authority stated "specific questions" have been asked by Britain regarding France's action "in specific cases that might arise" in connection with application of League of Nations sanctions.

Officials said France would automatically be obliged, under the League covenant, to adopt sanctions against Italy if Italy made an "unprovoked attack" on Great Britain while the latter was carrying out League orders.

WAITING THE SIGNAL
ADDIS ABABA, Sept. 30 (AP)—Emperor Haile Selassie tonight awaited only a signal from his League of Nations envoys to start the drumbeats that will call approximately two million eager warriors to arms.

He made intensive preparations for this general mobilization to start at the first news that the League

CLAIMS TRADE LOSS IS GREAT

Jack McDowell Declares
British Columbia to Lose
$8,000,000 From Japan

Through practical suspension of trade with Japan, British Columbia stands to lose nearly $8,000,000 annually, Jack McDowell, federal Liberal candidate for Victoria, told an audience at the Connaught Seamen's Institute, James Bay, last evening. J. S. Atkins presided.

Mr. McDowell maintained that Japan had labored for two years to straighten out trade treaties with Canada, but had received no co-operation from the Federal Government. He stated that Japan formerly purchased $4 worth of Canadian goods to every dollar Canada spent in Japan.

HUGE SUBSIDY
"There is a steamship line subsidized to the extent of over $9,000,000 annually by the Federal Government, and this line employs 2,500 Orientals," the speaker related. He thought it scandalous that the management of the line spent practically nothing in British Columbia for ship repairs.

Mr. McDowell said that high tariffs imposed by the Federal Government resulted in low wages paid to workers in many of the basic industries. He told how British Columbia fishermen were penalized by having to pay exorbitant prices for gasoline, oil, engines, other parts and fishing gear. He regretted that the cold storage plant was discriminated against by having to pay 20 cents more per box for freight on Okanagan apples than the price laid down at Vancouver.

William H. Kinsman gave illustrations of how high tariffs resulted in Canadians having to pay far more for automobiles than they should. He considered that purchasers were "paying through the nose" for many articles just for the privilege of maintaining the tariffs. He also believed that British Columbia manufacturers were discriminated against for the benefit of Eastern factories.

ATTACKS PLUNKETT
Herbert W. Davey spent almost half an hour on an attack against D. B. Plunkett, federal Conservative candidate for Victoria.

He declared that Mr. Plunkett supported the stand of the B.C. Coast Service in fighting reduction of a $180,000 airplane base at the mouth of the Inner Harbor, by a United States air line. Mr. Plunkett, he said, also stood by while a Federal Government officer was removed to Vancouver. He asserted that the former Federal member had secured only $50,000 worth of Government work for Victoria, while $100,000 had been spent at Nanaimo.

Mr. Davey maintained that Canada's railway problem would be solved by Liberals through increased trade and tariff reform. Even though Canada had tremendous natural resources, he did not favor immigration until the unemployment problem was solved.

He believed that the Conservative Government had made sincere efforts to grapple with the $2,800,000 public debt, but thought loan conversions did not help much.

WARNS THAT SALMON FISHING TOO HEAVY

The amount of fish available for canning, expansion has continued. It is particularly noticeable in the increase in fishing effort, measured by the amount of gear in the water in recent years. This enormous amount of gear has not increased the total production proportionately. If further proof were necessary, the definite amount of new fish available. As a result of too much gear, unit production no longer of the former.

CONTROL HINTED
Insisting his remarks with an extended report on fishing at Rivers Inlet and elsewhere, Mr. Alexander tells of the measure of nets at one point from 500 to 1,800, with a proportionately lower catch of fish resulting. His suggestions tend towards catch limit, and fish control similar to that applied on the halibut grounds, without actually stating in so explicit terms. The report, in printed form, was placed in the hands of Hon. G. S. Pearson, British Columbia minister of fisheries, this week.

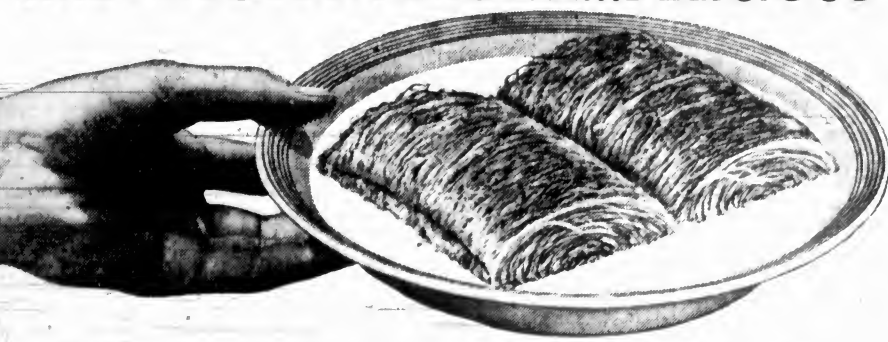

Statistics appended to the report trace the recovery of British Columbia total fishery values from $9,494,085 in 1932, to $15,334,015 in 1934, with $16,569,000 expected this year. Last year's catch equaled into the following main headings: Salmon, $12,351,641; halibut, $877,829; herring, $628,982; white products, $183,738; landed values only.

The industry's schedule had $21-143,048 in capital investment last year. It gave employment to 11,700 men in existing net hauling, trawl, and to 6,181 others in shore plants for canning and curing. Total numbers of men employed rose to 17,881, a gain of 1,925 jobs during the year.

Mr. and Mrs. McCarter, passengers in Mr. Bird's car, were being taken home from the Christadelphian Church in the Orange Hall, Courtenay Street.

DRIVER IS CHARGED

Arrested yesterday at 12:30 p.m., Mr. Findlay appeared in city police court, in the afternoon, charged with manslaughter.

Magistrate George Jay remanded him until this morning pending information as to the condition of witnesses.

Appearing for the accused, H. A. Beckwith asked for bail, but Magistrate Jay said he would withhold his decision until today.

Coroner Dr. E. C. Hart has called an inquest for 10 o'clock this morning in Hayward's B.C. Funeral Home to inquire into circumstances surrounding the death of Mr. and Mrs. McCarter.

FELL DOWN BANK

Police stated the two machines collided with great force, sending Mr. Bird's car crashing into the curb at the northwest corner of the intersection, after which it bounded into the air and fell down a four-foot embankment into a vacant lot where it lay on its side.

The other automobile also turned over, but, witnesses said, Mr. Findlay escaped injury by a narrow margin.

Both cars were badly damaged. The right side of Mr. Bird's machine was crushed in, wheels were broken, glass shattered, upholstery torn and the rear left door torn off. The car driven by Mr. Findlay had its radiator thrust back to the engine block, wheels broken, body crumpled and glass shattered.

AGED COUPLE DIE

City police and the C. & C. ambulance were dispatched to the scene, and while officers handled the injured and controlled the traffic, the ambulance conveyed Mr. McCarter to hospital. The other injured were taken in the police ambulance.

Mrs. McCarter passed away shortly after being admitted to hospital and Mr. McCarter died at 8:35 a.m. yesterday.

Miss Dorothy Bird, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bird, is a nurse in training at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, and she was summoned as soon as the injured were admitted.

Mr. and Mrs. McCarter were residents of Victoria for thirty-nine years, and during those years they made many friends. Last year, on August 30, the aged couple celebrated their diamond jubilee.

PIONEER BUILDER

Mr. McCarter was a pioneer contractor here, coming to the city from Moose Jaw, Sask., in June, 1898. For a time he was away from Victoria, hunting gold in the Yukon.

He was engaged in the construction in Victoria of three alternative routes for the Yukon, and on their completion went with them around Alaska, through the Bering Sea to St. Michael's and up the Yukon to Dawson and White Horse, returning on foot over the Chilkoot Pass to Skagway on his journey back to Victoria.

He also built two saws at White Horse for transporting merchandise to Dawson. These he placed in charge of several men for the trip down the river, but they were reached Dawson, being frozen in near Selkirk, and became a total loss.

IN RIEL REBELLION

Born in Almont, Ont., Mr. McCarter had a colorful career. He took part in the transport service during the Riel Rebellion of 1885 and participated in many of the events of that campaign. He married in 1874.

Mrs. McCarter was the former Matilda McDonald. She was born in Brechin, Scotland, on July 15, 1852, and first came to Canada as a girl of seventeen. Five years after her arrival she married her husband, at Walsworth, Ont., on August 31, 1874.

Surviving the elderly couple are three sons and two daughters, including Dr. McCarter, of Summit Avenue, with whom they resided; Dr. R. C. McCarter, of Seattle, and L. O. McCarter, of Chilliwack; and Mrs. H. B. Burr, of New Westminster, and Mrs. A. N. Hobkirk, of Calgary.

Aged Victims of Crash

After nearly sixty-one years of married life, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. McCarter died at the Royal Jubilee Hospital within twenty hours of each other. Mrs. McCarter passed away about 1 p.m. Sunday, half an hour after the collision at Hillside Avenue and Blackwood Street, and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bird and their family, and the car driven by Francis R. Findlay. The husband succumbed to his injuries yesterday morning at 8:35 o'clock. It had long been the wish of Mr. McCarter that death should claim him and his wife at the same time.

NOMINATIONS CLOSE IN MANY RIDINGS

The rush to file nomination papers was unprecedented in Canadian political history, and there was no doubt it would continue next Monday. In yesterday's nominations 292 candidates were named to contest the seventy-six seats which attracted only 170 in 1930.

They paid out slightly more than $54,000 for the privilege. Each candidate deposited $200 in cash or marked cheque, and unless he won or obtains half as many votes as the winner he won't get it back. The forfeited deposits will help swell the Federal treasury.

NOMINATIONS BY PARTIES

Liberals named seventy-six candidates and came closer to making a 100 per cent bid than any of the other big parties. Conservatives nominated sixty-nine; the C.C.F., fifty-six; Social Credit, thirty-five; and the Reconstruction Party, thirty-seven. Four Communists were named and sixteen candidates representing various groups.

Nominations were held a week earlier in the more extensive ridings, so that ballots, ballot boxes and other bits of election machinery could be carried to remote points, some of them hundreds of miles from the nomination scene.

They served in this instance to emphasize the country-wide bid for power to be made by the Reconstruction Party, led by Hon. H. H. Stevens, former Conservative Cabinet Minister, and the C.C.F., which was not an organized unit in 1930 when the Conservatives swept into power under leadership of Prime Minister R.B. Bennett.

IN TWO PROVINCES

While Conservatives, Liberals, Reconstructionists and C.C.F. candidates placed their names before the voters all across the country, the new Social Credit Party, which last month won the provincial election in Alberta, concentrated its strength in Saskatchewan and Alberta. Thirty-three of its thirty-five candidates were nominated in the two prairie provinces.

Liberals Mackenzie King and Mr. Stevens both found themselves pitted against Social Credit nominees. Mr. King was nominated in Prince Albert, the Saskatchewan constituency that returned him to the last three Parliaments.

Mr. King's opponents are P. T. Graves, Conservative; Thomas Johnson, C.C.F.; and A. R. Bedard, Social Credit. In Kootenay East, Mr. Stevens was one of four candidates formally nominated. His opponents are Hon. R. R. Bruce, Liberal, former Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia; B. C. Iverson, C.C.F.; and Ernest W. Sjodin, Social Credit.

J. S. Woodsworth, leader of the C.C.F. and veteran Winnipeg Parliamentarian, will be nominated in Winnipeg North Centre next Monday. Prime Minister Bennett also will be nominated that day in Calgary.

SASKATCHEWAN COMPLETE

Only Saskatchewan completed its nominations yesterday, naming eighty-four candidates to fight it out for the province's twenty-one seats in the House of Commons. The Liberal party put up a complete slate of twenty-one candidates, with twenty being named by the C.C.F. and Social Credit. Conservatives named nineteen, and the Reconstruction Party, three. Jacob Benson was nominated in Yorkton as a C.C.F.-Social Credit candidate and will stand against a straight Social Credit candidate, William Kelso.

Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture, was the only Bennett Cabinet member in the Saskatchewan riding facing three opponents in Melville. A former Liberal Minister of Agriculture, Hon. W. R. Motherwell, seeks re-election in Melville, also against three opponents.

CONTEST IN SASKATOON

Prominent among other Saskatchewan contestants were Dr. J. T. M. Anderson, former Conservative Premier of the province, who was nominated in Saskatoon City, and M. J. Coldwell, who led an unsuccessful C.C.F. campaign in the Saskatchewan general election last year. Mr. Coldwell was nominated in Rosetown-Biggar.

Alberta and Manitoba also went a long way toward finishing their nominating job. Starting fields were completed in thirteen of Alberta's seventeen seats and in twelve of the seventeen Manitoba seats. The entire prairie slate will be filled next Monday with formal nominations in only two provinces.

Hon. T. G. Murphy, Minister of the Interior, stood for re-election in Neepawa, facing Liberal, C.C.F. and Reconstruction opposition. Hon. J. B. Brown, Speaker of the last House, was in a three-way fight in Dauphin.

Up in the northern riding of Churchill, Hon. T. A. Cretz, former leader of the Progressive Party and a Cabinet Minister in two Governments, entered a contest as a Liberal against Barney M. Stitt, Conservative member of the last Commons, and Alex Stewart, C.C.F.

The Manitoba political brigade was forty-seven strong, including a

STATES TRADE STATUS WORSE

Liberal Leader Promises to Reduce Tariffs if Returned to Power

CALGARY, Sept. 30.—Canada's relative position among the nations in trade volume was worse in 1934 than in 1929. This was the answer given tonight by Liberal Leader Mackenzie King to Prime Minister Bennett's statement that Canada had "held her own with other nations during the depression."

"Taking his figures from the 'League of Nations Review of World Trade, 1934,'" he argued that loss in Canadian trade was due to the restrictive policies pursued by the Bennett Government. These policies would be reversed by a Liberal Government and a trade treaty with the United States would be completed within the present year.

RELATIVE FIGURES

Between 1929 and 1934, Canada's percentage of total world trade dropped by one-ninth, from 3.68 per cent to 3.27 per cent. In relative shares of world trade as between the two years, Canada stood last of all the British nations and almost sixtieth among the eighty-six nations included.

Speaking to Mr. Bennett's fellow citizens and electors Mr. King said he had never put obstacles in Mr. Bennett's way but had opposed him when he was restricting the power of Parliament. Mr. Bennett had done his best "according to his lights," and if he had failed it was not because he lacked sincerity but because his policies were wrong.

DEBT INCREASED

In the last five years of Conservative rule, Canada's trade had dropped, unemployment and hardship had increased and the public debt had increased by $800,000,000. This was a terrible burden.

"Take it out of Sir Herbert Holt," said an interrupter.

"I am just as strong as anyone in this country for a more equitable distribution of wealth," said Mr. King. "It has got to come and it will not be done by sitting on the sidelines and shouting, but by coming along and helping the party that stands for it. There is this to be considered also. You could take all the wealth this few rich men have and it would not be a drop in the bucket compared with the debts that have been piled up."

FOR DRASTIC REDUCTION

Mr. King wanted it clearly understood the Liberal party stood for immediate and drastic reduction in the tariff as set up by the Bennett Government. Within a week after taking office it would reduce the cost of living by doing away with some of the arbitrary rulings of the National Revenue Department.

A Liberal Government would reduce tariffs to benefit Canada and not to benefit other countries. It would not throw open the doors to all cheap foreign goods. The former Liberal Government had reduced tariffs, but no Canadian industry was injured. Another Liberal Government would proceed in the same way.

TRANSFER TO RESCUE SHIP

Rotterdam was coming up behind its tail when she cast ashore.

Messages during the day from Captain J. Van Dulken, the Rotterdam's veteran master, reported that all was well aboard the big ship. The sea had smoothed down into comparative calm after the week-end's storm. A swell was still running, though, and messages from the Argonaut reported that the Rotterdam was pounding "lightly" on the reef.

LEAK opened in the liner's bottom and she was taking water in four compartments. Word received here said that almost her full length lay along the jagged reef.

TREE SURVEY TO BE MADE

Removal of Boulevard Trees on Darkened Streets Will Be Considered

A survey of city boulevards with a view to determining what trees should be taken out to remove the darkened areas that exist where trees have grown to such a size that their branches interlock will be undertaken by the parks committee of the City Council.

This action was decided upon last night on a motion advanced by Alderman Archie Wills after the council already had authorized that every alternate tree on Cornwall Street and Heywood Avenue be taken out. In the case of Cornwall Street, the Japanese plum blossom trees removed will be donated to the Legislative Buildings gardener for planting in the grounds there.

The petition of residents on Elford Street to have the boulevard trees removed on that street was turned down.

Also on the recommendation of the parks committee, an area of ground, now used for parking automobiles at the Beacon Hill Park bowling green, was set aside for future development as a bowling green.

CLUB TO SUPPORT OPERA MOVEMENT

Gyro Meeting Features Vocal Selections by Well-Known Local Artists

Aims and object of the Victoria Civic Opera Association were explained to members of the Gyro Club at the Empress Hotel yesterday by Harry J. Davis, president of the association. Mr. Davis told the clubmen that the association was formed in order to train young people and provide cultural entertainment for the general public. An attempt would also be made to co-ordinate the wealth of talent in the city. Mr. Davis said that a civic auditorium was planned, and asked members of the Gyro Club for their support.

Waldo Skilling, president of the club, thanked the speaker and promised that clubmen would do all they could to further aims and objects of the Victoria Civic Opera Association.

A number of grand opera selections were sung by Mrs. Thelma Johns, Dr. Harry Johns, Miss Phyllis Deaville, Miss Dorothy Parsons and Mrs. Ruth Helen Tait. Basil Horsfall was the accompanist.

CAMPAIGN TO END BRISKLY

One Hundred Speakers Will Be Heard by Victoria Electors Inside Two Weeks

Twenty-eight political meetings and 100 addresses will be heard by Victoria electors between now and the end of the present Federal election campaign. These are platform appearances, apart entirely from radio and other forms of campaign.

With the leaders of four parties heard already, the last two weeks of the campaign will include a steady succession of rallies, night after night, for the most part at city school auditoriums. In the districts campaigning continues, with many meetings in the Nanaimo Federal riding and Gulf Islands.

Major meetings by the main parties this week will include a public rally at the Empire Theatre on Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Victoria Conservative Association. On Friday evening the Liberals have engaged the Shrine Hall for a corresponding rally.

SPEAKERS LISTED

Leon J. Ladner, K.C.; D. B. Plunkett and J. W. Jones will address the Empire Theatre meeting.

while Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Col. Cyrus W. Peck, V.C., and Jack McDowell will speak at the Shrine Auditorium.

Next week Mayor G. G. McGeer, K.C., M.P.P.; Nellie McClung and others will be heard at a Liberal rally at the Royal Victoria Theatre on Monday, October 7, while Conservatives will hold a closing rally at the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium on Friday, October 11.

Stevens' Reconstruction, C.C.F. and Social Credit meetings round out a calendar of rallies, ranging from two to six a night for the next two weeks.

SOCIAL CREDIT

Apart from the campaign, Very Rev. Hewlett Johnson, Dean of Canterbury, will discuss Social Credit at a non-political meeting announced to take place on Thursday evening at the Empire Theatre.

Details of ward meetings of all parties are given in the day-by-day calendar of fixtures, under the heading of "Candidates in Action."

ARCTIC ICE HELD CRAFT

Engineer of Hudson's Bay Power Boat Spent Long Winter Abroad

EDMONTON, Sept. 30. — A prisoner on the ice-bound coast of the Arctic Ocean for ten long weary months when the Hudson's Bay Company power boat Margot A. became locked in the ice, G. Walker Abba, engineer of the vessel, was enjoying his first glimpse of civilization in eighteen months, over the week-end.

Abba arrived from the North Saturday by plane and will remain here for a few days before proceeding to his home in Vancouver.

ICE CLOSED IN

On September 15, 1934, the Margot A. was passing through drift ice between Tuktoyaktuk and Coppermine, when, with dramatic suddenness, the ice closed in.

When it became certain that the boat could not get through the ice, the crew proceeded to load the Margot A. with supplies and provisions, and the vessel was towed to the icebreaker, the St. Lawrence, which was en route to the coast.

Abba and the deckhands remained aboard the vessel from September 15 until July 26 of this year.

COAL GAVE OUT

In January, in the midst of the most severe Arctic winter on record, the boat's coal supply gave out. Abba made a make-shift stove and kept himself and the others from freezing by burning the ship's oil.

"I was certainly glad when the ice melted in July and we proceeded to Tuktoyaktuk and picked up Capt. Roberts and others of the crew," he said.

Tuktoyaktuk is Eskimo for caribou.

The Margot A. got through successfully this fall on her final run and is now being refitted at the Fort Smith shipyard.

Abba's mother, Mrs. J. D. Cadenhead, of Vancouver, went to Fort McMurray to meet her son and returned with him to Edmonton in the plane.

NEW SUNSHINE RECORD IS SET

More Than 270 Sunny Hours Enjoyed in September—Highest in History

With a total of 270 hours and twenty-four minutes of sunshine, the month of September set a new record in this respect, breaking that set in 1932, when the city experienced 260 hours of sunshine, P. Napier Denison, director of Gonzales Observatory, announced last night.

Last month's sunshine was sixty-seven hours above average, and ten hours above the previous record month in September, 1934.

The highest temperature reached during the month was 79 degrees last Sunday. The lowest was 46.5 degrees on September 25, giving a mean temperature of 58 degrees.

The highest September temperature on record is 87 degrees. This was recorded in September, 1932.

The rainfall last month was below average, the precipitation being 1.18 inches, which is 36 of an inch below normal. Rain fell on five days, mostly during exhibition week.

CITY REVENUES STEADILY GAIN

Review of Collections Made by Comptroller Discloses Encouraging Picture

City revenues generally show either substantial or slight increases over the figures for last year, a review of the situation completed yesterday by D. A. Macdonald, city comptroller and treasurer, disclosed.

While collection of current taxes shows a decrease compared with last year's figure, the percentage of collections is up slightly. Up to September 25 a total of $808,552 had been collected on current accounts as compared with $835,895 for the same period last year. The percentage of collections this year is 48 as compared with 47.84 for the same period last year. This is due in part to the fact that the city levied for much less this year than it did in

BIGGEST GAIN
The biggest gain is shown in the collection of tax arrears. So far a total of $172,226 has been collected compared with $148,831 for the same period last year. This is an increase of $23,395.

The land's department also reported a complete picture of the city's revenues cannot be gained until all Government grants and revenues from pari-mutuels and motor licences have been determined. However, the review indicated that at the close of the year a fairly general increase in receipts should be shown in most departments.

The Brave Leader Who Brought a Brave People Through The World Economic Storm.

Canada has just come through the three greatest financial crashes in world history, all breaking upon her from outside. TODAY, CANADA'S HEAD IS "BLOODY, BUT UNBOWED". SHE IS STILL THE MASTER OF HER FATE, THE CAPTAIN OF HER SOUL.

Do you suppose that a Government of mere parliamentarians or catchpenny politicians could have brought us through the past five years? This was no time for petty politics and partisan advantage. It called for strong statesmanship and iron courage in the Government. And, at the helm, it demanded A MAN.

The world will not soon forget the great American stock and commodity crash in the fall of 1929, when billions were wiped out and "white panic" stalked the earth. A Liberal Government was in power in Canada, with a genial, laissez-faire "wait-and-see" policy of inaction, and a leader who assured the Canadian people that "economic conditions in Canada were never more sound." They did not create the world crisis but they did nothing to meet it. And when they reaped the whirlwind and were tossed out of office in 1930, they left the wreckage piled up at Mr. Bennett's door—left Canada exposed in the midst of the great financial storm with ruin staring her in the face, and left the incoming Conservative Government to keep the country solvent with the shackles of an inherited unfavorable trade balance amounting to $103,000,000.

Mr. Bennett had been in office only a year when the second great crash occurred abroad. Great Britain was forced off gold in the great sterling crisis of the autumn of 1931 and half the world's currencies tottered with the British pound. Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, then British Prime Minister, has described the agonies of that week-end of September 20, 1931. It had the most immediate reaction upon Canada, and sent our dollar diving towards destruction. IF IT REQUIRED RESOLUTE HANDLING TO TAKE OVER IN 1930, IN THE MIDST OF THE STORM, IT NEEDED IRON STATESMANSHIP TO BRING US THROUGH THE STERLING CRISIS WHICH FOR THE TIME BEING LAID EVEN PROUD BRITAIN LOW.

VOTE CONSERVATIVE — FOR A GREAT POLICY

Published for the Conservative Committee.

In time, the world panic spread to this continent again. In March, 1933, after bank failure upon bank failure, with State after State declaring moratoria, the United States was forced to admit a national panic and to close every bank in the Union. With our great, rich neighbor prostrate in the grip of a mighty panic—right next door—how did Canada fare? Not a bank closed its doors in Canada, not an insurance company failed, not a Canadian lost his savings. Sound banking, and above all a sound people with sound institutions brought us through. BUT IT MEANT SOUND GOVERNMENT, IN THE FACE OF IMMEDIATE NATIONAL PERIL—AND THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT STOOD THIS TEST WHILE GOVERNMENTS ELSEWHERE, LIKE THEIR INSTITUTIONS, WERE TOTTERING.

Today we have come through these crises, though we are still far from the Promised Land. We are on the up-grade, we are doing better and better, though we cannot dream of resting yet.

DURING THE PAST FOUR YEARS CANADA'S EXPORT TRADE HAS HELD UP BETTER THAN THAT OF ANY OTHER GREAT TRADING NATION, EXCEPT JAPAN.

Our industrial pick-up from the depression lows has been equally remarkable but we single out export trade since the life of the country depends upon it, in the broadest way, and particularly that of the farmer, the miner, the lumberman, and the primary producer generally. THAT IS A PROUD RECORD, ACHIEVED NOT BY PLAYING POLITICS BUT BY THE PEOPLE'S COURAGE AND THE GOVERNMENT'S LEADERSHIP.

The Canadian people have suffered bravely throughout the world storm, and they are making a heroic come-back today. Their heroism called for heroic leadership—matching the man and the hour. R. B. BENNETT NEVER QUAILED, NEVER FAILED YOU IN THE CRISES. HE BROUGHT CANADA THROUGH. LEADING A HEROIC PEOPLE WAS A GREAT MAN, A GREAT STATESMAN, AND—ABOVE ALL—A GREAT CANADIAN.

NANAIMO, Sept. 30.—In brilliant weather the annual regatta of the Nanaimo Yacht Club was held yesterday at Departure Bay. Eleven events were carried, but the sailboat race was called off, due to lack of wind. The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Class "C" race for outboard hydroplanes. Vancouver and Victoria were represented by one entry each.

Detailed results of the events follow:

Four horsepower outboard hydroplanes—1. M. Easton, Nanaimo; 2. J. Russell, Jr., Nanaimo.

Balloon race—1. J. Russell, Jr., Nanaimo; 2. R. Dunsmore, Nanaimo.

PARTY POLICY GIVEN REVIEW

Percy E. George and R. S. A. Jackson Address Meeting in Victoria West

Percy E. George, Reconstruction Party candidate for Victoria, and R. S. A. Jackson addressed a gathering at Victoria West School auditorium last night.

Mr. George blamed the "tight money" policy of the Conservative administration as one of the main reasons for the continuance of the depression. He maintained there was a vast difference between a "tight money" policy and a sound money policy. The former, he stated, restricted currency circulation through high interest rates. He quoted the following figures: In England currency circulation represented $44 per capita, in the United States $46 per capita and in Canada $22. The low figure for Canada, he said, represented monopolistic control which placed in the hands of a few the destiny of all the people of Canada. Mr. Stevens, the speaker declared, was committed to a policy of a "greater flow of currency" and lower interest rates.

ONE OF THE MISTAKES

Mr. George said one of the mistakes in the attempt to recovery was the attitude of governments starting at the top by protecting the banker in the hope he would protect the manufacturer and the manufacturer protect the worker. "Unfortunately it did not work out that way, as we now know," he asserted.

Mr. George reiterated his stand in connection with social credit and also gave a brief review of the fifteen planks in the Reconstruction platform.

Mr. Jackson maintained the Government of Canada was too costly, the average cost per head of population being around $90. "The trouble has been that the two old line parties have thought party first and Canada last. By the proper distribution of wealth in the Dominion, everyone should have sufficient to provide food, shelter and a reasonable amount of luxury."

CRITICIZES HEBURN

Mr. Jackson strongly criticized Premier Heburn of Ontario for his statement that Canada did not need a reforestation policy. "The trouble with Mr. Heburn is that he has come off the farm and has got lost in the woods. To say that Canada does not need a forest policy is simply ridiculous," he said.

The speaker also reviewed some of the proposals of the Reconstruction Party and referred to Mr. Stevens as a man of sincerity, energy and experience who will, by his policy, bring the country back to prosperity. H. Boothman was chairman.

All City Buildings Are Given New Appraisal for Insurance Coverage

Work of revaluing the city's buildings for the purpose of adjusting insurance rates has been completed, it was announced yesterday by D. A. Macdonald, city comptroller and treasurer.

The appraisers covered 114 buildings owned by the city in doing the work, and as a result of their survey, cut the value down to $788,293 from the original figure of $1,124,520. The difference in the value is due to depreciation allowed on each building.

Trouble Nearly Comes to Head When Pickets Interfere With Workers

NANAIMO, Sept. 30.—Trouble which has been brewing for several weeks at Nanaimo Bay, where the plant of the Straits Lumber Company is situated, between longshoremen who have been working ships and pickets representing the striking longshoremen's union at Vancouver, very nearly came to a head on Monday afternoon.

Some forty-one men, who state that they belong to a union of their own, separate from that involved in the present strike, are loading the Ss. Tyr. Some ten or twelve pickets, they claim, have lined the road leading to the waterfront and have used insulting language. Provincial Police have been stationed at the scene for some weeks and report tension high.

The president, Mrs. E. Musgrave, was in the chair. A satisfactory report was given by the treasurer of the W.A. garden fête held in July. The president thanked members and friends for their ready help in making the fête a financial success, thereby enabling the branch to meet its pledge obligation. Mrs. Fox reported three boxes of clothing sent to a family in urgent need at Hupel, B.C., and a grateful letter was read from the recipients. Mrs. Fox, Mrs. Holden and Mrs. Hunt kindly looked after the freight charges. The president gave a resume of the progress of the new study book. The members agreed to work for the C.G.M. bazaar and endeavor to send clothing to the Prairie Province relief. Correspondence from three firms, regarding the lamp, was read, and decided to hand it over to the doctors, with the suggestion that they make the choice, on the understanding that the lamp chosen be on trial. Should, however, the doctors be unable to make a satisfactory selection from the quotations received, further quotations will be asked before the next meeting. Following the business, the members accepted an invitation from Mrs. H. B. Rogers to her home for tea.

As a Life Insurance Policyholder You Share in the Ownership of These Valuable Assets

Government Bonds
First Mortgages
Municipal Bonds
Public Utility Bonds
Industrial Securities

YOUR savings in Life Insurance—which help to form the Assets of the company in which you are insured—not only protect you and your family but also make you a part owner of high-grade securities.

For example—as a Life Insurance policyholder, you share in the ownership of Government and Municipal bonds. These bonds provide for the construction of highways, railways, canals, schools, water and sewage systems, and other important public enterprises.

You likewise have a definite financial interest in Canadian industries, and in Canadian homes and farms.

The Life Insurance companies, which your enterprise and thrift have built up, acting on behalf of yourself and 3,500,000 other policyholders, invest the Assets you have entrusted to them. In making these investments, they exercise the utmost care to secure safety with a satisfactory yield.

Of the combined Assets in the Life Insurance companies operating in Canada, the major part is invested in Government and Municipal bonds and debentures. Large amounts are also invested in first mortgages on carefully selected city, town and farm properties, and in loans to policyholders.

You can take satisfaction in the fact that Life Insurance companies in Canada have faithfully discharged their obligations. Even in periods of greatest financial stress, every obligation guaranteed by their policies has been fulfilled.

Her Excellency Thanks Women for Their Gifts

OTTAWA, Sept. 30.—On her departure after five years' residence in Ottawa, the Countess of Desborough wrote Lady Perley expressing her gratitude to the women of Canada for the gift to Her Excellency—a cup made of gold fashioned by Canadian workmen.

"As it is not possible for me to write to all those who joined in this presentation," Lady Desborough wrote, "I hope you will be able to find a means of conveying to them how truly grateful I am and how much I shall always treasure their wonderful gift."

Lady Perley was head of the committee which collected the funds from Canadian women for the gift. The gold cup and watches to Lord Dunsannon and his brother, and sister were presented on September 24 in Ottawa.

DEEP GRATITUDE

"I find it hard," Her Excellency's letter began, "to put into words my feelings of deep gratitude for the perfectly beautiful cup of Canadian gold and workmanship which you, and some of the members of your committee, have presented to me on behalf of the women of Canada."

"It is very delightful that as a result of the generosity of the subscribers, you have also given presents to our three children. They are much honored, most grateful and enchanted with the charming watches. I thank you very warmly on their behalf."

"A Royal Divorce" Is Presented by Junior Players

SHAWNIGAN LAKE, Sept. 30.—A capacity audience filled the large auditorium of the S.L.A.A. Hall on Friday night to witness the Shawnigan Lake Junior Dramatic Club's first production of the season, "A Royal Divorce," or "The Life Story of Napoleon and Josephine."

In its interpretation of this beautiful historical drama, revised by Professor J. Clancy, the club upheld the excellent reputation gained from its initial production last May. The rapid rise to power of Napoleon and his tragic downfall, and the colorful parts played in his life story by the Empress Josephine and the Empress Marie of Austria, with their royal assistants, were well depicted in a setting of magnificent costumes of the era and beautiful scenery.

CLEVER PRESENTATION

The most outstanding representation was that of Empress Josephine, by Mrs. F. E. Ed Dela, whose dramatic portrayal of that tragic historical queen was heartily applauded. R. Wicks, as Napoleon, sustained his difficult role ably, showing the great emperor torn between love for his empire and duty to his country.

The third member of the historical triangle, Empress Marie Louise, was well played by Ivy Hunt. Ladies of the court were Angeline, Miss Mary Smith; Stephanie, Miss Loraine Brooke; Madame Duprez, Miss Mary Lamb and Rosalind, Miss B. Woodruff.

Mr. C. Meredith proved himself an adept at quick changing in his dual role of Marquis de Beaumont and an innkeeper, Monsieur de Talleyrand, General Augereau and the Prince of Naples were excellently played by D. Allen, C. Page and W. Watson, while Evelyn Ed Dela completed the cast as the little King of Rome.

PLANS FOR COMEDY

The success of the venture was due mainly to the untiring efforts of Mrs. Ed Dela, who thanked the public for its support and intimated that rehearsals would soon be under way for a musical comedy to be given at Christmas time. The beautiful scenery, with scenes laid in the Royal Palace at Versailles, the apartment of the empress, the palace gardens, an old inn on the road to Moscow and the Rock of St. Helena, was painted by a local artist, Mr. F. Bell, who has received many compliments on his work.

The Home Owners' Orchestra gave selections during the intermissions.

The Baker and the Baker's Wife were names popularly given to Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette because they gave bread to the starving mob at Versailles on October 6, 1789.

STORMY LOVE

A YOUNG NAVY MAN'S ROMANCE

CHAPTER LV

Val knelt beside Lia to hold her close as she sobbed hysterically. He wished that she would cry but she only trembled and moaned pitifully. Presently she pushed back the loosened masses of her hair, and stared up at him.

"They'll laugh at you too, because you are my husband," she cried, "and just to hurt me they'll always remind each other that you're a Virginian, old navy. They'll say that you shrank at the color line—and then they'll tell that you're married—a half-caste!" Her body arched and then collapsed at the very utterance of the term.

Even while he held her close in his arms and listened to her broken whisperings he was shaken by the violent revulsion of feeling. She reeked of musk and cloying ginger blossoms. "Despite her beauty, to his sick gaze her skin had become exasperatingly yellow, her black hair coarse and oily, her eyes slanted, alits of polished jet. The crimson robe, her hairdress, the clinking glass bracelets—these things that had always repelled him sent every nerve and fiber into nauseated revolt.

As if she sensed his repulsion she half sat up, her tiny hands gripping him with the strength of despair. "Val, you must take me away," she insisted. "Opal will tell everyone. You must find a place where people can't know. It is the only way. You must leave the navy. Now you must sell the invention. It is imperative we have money."

He tried to divert her. "We'll talk about all that later," he promised. "But now you must get hold of yourself. Please try to rest a little. You will be ill if you go on this way." His attempts to calm her were vain. "Promise me!" she cried wildly. "Promise! You can't desert me now. I haven't anyone else in the whole world."

"I shan't desert you. You know that." He loosened her hands and stood up abruptly. "I am going to send Opal away for the night," he told her. "The sly maid had undoubtedly heard Garenne's disclosure and there was now no use to silence her gossiping tongue. No use, however, to add any further details to her knowledge of their affairs."

Lia had slipped back to the very still, her eyes closed. He fetched a fringed shawl embroidered with purple lilies and spread it over her. "Try to quiet down for a while, Lia," he said.

She lay motionless and after a space he went out of the room and into the study beyond. When he had closed the door he stood unperceived with his hand on the knob. Oh, what a blind alley he was in! From this time forth Lia and he were marked. To the world as to themselves there would be a repellent aura of the exotic—the abnormal—the unnatural! He would always sense that outsiders were must stay on here in the "lard" where his affairs would be common property, where everyone would see his humiliation, all his pride tumbled into the dust. On sure, his friends and classmates would rally around. They were like that. But however good his associates' intentions, he would know that they forced themselves to act as if nothing untoward had happened.

He couldn't face it! Well a way out still remained. His harried eyes strained across the dim room toward the desk. There, locked in a tin dispatch box in the second drawer, lay his salvation! Lia was right. He could sell his plans for the ruler. It was a way of escape for both of them. What if the invention of a service man did automatically become the property of the navy? If he handed in his resignation they could not force him to surrender his device. He would leave the service. He would take Lia away. Then later, when he had provided well for her, when she no longer needed him, she would be willing to let him go.

Free! He could come to Jan then. His heart leaped at the hope. Jan would understand. If it seemed to him that he had earned dishonor by quitting the navy to sell his invention, Jan would know that it had been for the sake of another, and not for his own gain. With hands that shook he groped forward to switch on the shade desk lamp, then unlocked the drawer and brought out the dispatch box. A moment later he stood staring down at the packet that seemed to have been reserved by providence as a way out of his difficulties. He knew now that there had been a definite force that had restrained him all these weeks past from turning the plans over to Captain Edding. Fate.

He had kept him from throwing away his salvation. For once this packet was in Captain Edding's possession. There was no longer Val Preston's property but belonged to the United States navy.

Here in this plain manila envelope lay financial security and his last chance at happiness. Later, he would make some new place for himself, find some new career. And then, with Lia provided for and himself free, Jan would grant him the one real joy life could hold. Jan would understand. She would come to him. She would bring him all the fine and lovely things she stood for.

And what could he offer in return? His thoughts paused in mid-air. Body and mind braced themselves as if for a tremendous impact. For the packed dropped from his suddenly loose grasp.

A bewildering fog seemed to envelop him. He had, he thought, taken more than one tough fight these past few hours. His head was not quite clear. Like a bright silver nerve of light came the remembrance of the whiskey in the cabinet.

He reached out and opened the door. Staring up at the row of bottles he told himself that one drink while he thought things out would be only common sense. The Lord knew he needed it! One drink sharpened a man's mind, made him see clearly. Outrigger fingers were eager—and then, slowly, his arm came to his side, his shoulders straightened—

"Grave and be damned! Today he had made himself a promise he proposed to keep! He flung up his hand to slam shut the door. A slight sound from behind arrested and swung him about. Lia, he saw, stood in the shadows by the wall watching him.

"Val," she said in a voice scarcely above a whisper. "I've got to know. Are you going to take me away?"

For a space they stood there staring at each other. She looked so small. So crushed. He had to help her. But would fresh evasions do either of them any good? Hadn't he learned by this time that you couldn't escape. Not ever. Side-step as you would, life always caught up with you eventually. It herded you until you faced and mastered your problem in due course. But the reward was your self-respect.

Returning from a trip up the West Coast of Vancouver Island where she went to pick up a party of hydrographers working in the vicinity of Kyquoot Sound during the past summer, the survey ship William J. Stewart arrived back in the harbor on Sunday morning. From the United Kingdom by way of Panama and California ports, the Royal Mail Line Ma. BIRD HAUNTS HIGH LEVELS

Night-Flying Denizen of Upper Air Strata Hit by Plane

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—What sort of a bird prowls about after darkness and at an altitude of 11,000 feet above sea level?

There is a serious question for you real or fancied ornithologists to answer for the benefit of a former member of the first Byrd-Antarctic expedition, who now is a regular line flyer for Transcontinental & Western Air, Inc., operator of passenger, mail and express service over the Central Transcontinental Airway.

The incident which brought on the question as to the identity of this high-flying bird of the night occurred at 8:45 o'clock one recent night in the vicinity of Terre Haute, Indiana. Captain Alton N. Parker, the T.W.A. pilot who was a member of the first of Richard Evelyn Byrd's expeditions to the South Polar region, was winging his way westward at the controls of one of his company's skyliners.

LEFT COLUMN Captain Parker, his co-pilot, M. C. Williams and their twelve passengers were flying T.W.A.'s second Sky Chief schedule, which had left New York last afternoon, and which was due at Los Angeles early the next morning. The plane had left Columbus, Ohio, at 8:25 p.m. (Eastern) and was due at Kansas City, the next scheduled stop, at 11:25 p.m. (Central).

The skyliner had reached a point near Terre Haute, at 8:45 o'clock and was flying at 11,000 feet, when Captain Parker either felt or heard a sensation which caused him to believe something had dropped to the floor of the pilot's compartment. He glanced around but saw nothing unusual. Everything was in place. He thereupon forgot the incident and turned back to the business of navigating and attending to other flight details.

REMAINS OF BIRD Upon landing at the Kansas City Airport, the pilot's attention was called to the remains of what had been a bird, and which still clung to the nose of the skyliner despite the great speed of the airplane. No one aboard other than pilot and co-pilot had felt the sensation as the great plane destroyed the other high-flying creature of the night, but Captain Parker realized then what had caused the sensation he had received near Terre Haute.

In any event, Captain Parker would like to know what sort of a bird it is that does his flying after dark and at an altitude of more than two miles above sea level. If you have any ideas in the matter, the pilot will be glad to have them. He may be addressed in care of Transcontinental & Western Air, Inc., Kansas City Airport, Kansas City, Missouri.

LONGSHOREMEN RELEASE SHIPS

Golden State and West Mahwah to Leave Vancouver for Seattle

VANCOUVER, Sept. 30.—The United States freighters Golden State and West Mahwah, tied up here since July 20 on account of Vancouver's longshore strike, have been released and will sail tonight for Seattle to complete loading.

Vancouver agents of the two vessels stated the vessels' crews would arrive later today from Seattle. Each ship carries partial cargo of lumber and general merchandise loaded in Vancouver during the strike.

The West Mahwah will proceed to South American ports via the West Indies, and Ss. Golden State is booked for Australia.

Release of the two vessels is acquiesced in by the Vancouver longshoremen's strike committee, assertedly "as a friendly gesture to maritime unions on the Pacific Coast."

Final Hours of Noted Craft

On Saturday night, the Capital Iron & Metals Company, who bought the well-known coast ferry boat Ss. Chermer from Canadian Pacific Steamships, set the torch which burned up all the woodwork remaining on the ship after being stripped of everything of value that could be salvaged. All that remains of the ship which made shipping history in local waters for many years, is the steel shell; and this will soon be cut into small pieces, once the acetylene torch operators get going on the plates. The Chermer was burned on the beach near Albert Head. She was built at San Francisco by the Union Iron Works in 1887, and was 200 feet long.

THIEVES BREAK INTO MOTOR CARS HERE AND STEAL MANY ARTICLES

Many articles of clothing and other effects were stolen over the week-end from automobiles owned by J. F. Parker, 1318 Transit Road, and E. J. Garrett, Union Club.

From Mr. Parker's car, as it stood parked on Government Street, near Belleville Street, articles belonging to Miss Edna Gerrard, A. W. McDonald and P. A. Haseett, all of Duncan, and several things owned by Mr. Parker, were taken.

Breaking into Mr. Garrett's automobile on Gordon Street, thieves stole a brown leather handbag containing wearing apparel and other articles.

"G-MAN" PICTURE IS AT DOMINION

"Let 'em Have It" Stars Richard Arlen, Virginia Bruce, Bruce Cabot and Others

"Let 'em Have It" the feature opening today at the Dominion Theatre, discloses the thrilling methods of Justice's relentless war on crime. Harry M. Goetz and Edward Small, the producers, have gathered one of the greatest arrays of stars in Hollywood to bring to the screen this tremendously timely subject. Richard Arlen, Virginia Bruce, Bruce Cabot and Alice Brady head the cast which includes Harvey Stephens, Eric Linden and Gordon Jones among others.

Arlen as an attorney, disgusted with the ease with which lawbreakers beat cases in court; Stephens as a wealthy sportsman who gives up a big game quest to hunt more dangerous human quarry; and Gordon Jones, a dead-shot cowboy infiltrated at the lawlessness of modern badmen, become the "Three Musketeers" of the Federal sleuths. Their first job is to nip a kidnapping plot in which Eleanor Spencer (Virginia Bruce) is involved. The mobsters get life sentences, but her chauffeur, Bruce Cabot, receives only a light punishment.

ment for carrying a gun. Over the protests of Arlen, Cabot is freed on parole through the efforts of the girl. From then on, the ex-chauffeur becomes, by quick steps, Public Enemy No. 1.

As the hunt grows hotter, Cabot uses every trick of his trade in his efforts to evade the law, all of which makes the final reels of the picture as exciting a piece of filmcraft as has ever been screened.

PLAYHOUSE Once a circus man, always a circus man, is an axiom of the entertainment world and Will Rogers, who started his career as an entertainer with a circus, evidently found it was all too true. Every evening, after finishing work on his starring picture for Fox Film, "Doubting Thomas," now playing at the Playhouse Theatre, Will was to be found hanging around Tom Mix's Circus, which was then in Hollywood.

COLUMBIA Spencer Tracy, horse fancier, bought Troubadour for racing. Now, proved a failure on the track, he's being trained for polo. If the nag falls again, he'll probably land between the shafts of a good old ice wagon. Spencer Tracy's latest appearance is in "It's a Small World," the Fox Film comedy now at the Columbia Theatre.

CAPITOL The insatiable of Busby Theatre Berkeley, director, upon absolute accuracy in all possible scenes of the new First National comedy, "Bright Lights," in which Joe E. Brown will be seen at the Capitol Theatre for the last time today, has resulted in some unusual casting. It is pointed out. Real burlesque singers and dancers were used for burlesque girls. A real dance director, Eddie Larkin, was cast as a dance director. Harry Seymour, who has often been a genuine stage manager, was put into the stage manager part.

LITTLE ORPHEUM TO OPEN ON THURSDAY

The Little Orpheum Theatre will open next Thursday at the location formerly occupied by the Romano Theatre, on Government Street. The opening attraction will be "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer," starring Gary Cooper, Franchot Tone, Richard Cromwell and Sir Guy Standing. This highly-dramatic spectacle

PAUL ALTHOUSE SINGS TONIGHT

Metropolitan Opera Tenor, Assisted by Soprano and Pianist, at the Empire

Paul Althouse, Metropolitan Opera star, appears tonight at the Empire Theatre, bringing to Victoria's music lovers a rare treat in music. This talented vocal artist will be assisted by Querita Eybel, soprano, with Pablo Miquel at the piano. Althouse, at a recent appearance in New York, received glowing tribute from famous critics. Ten straight seasons with the Metropolitan after his debut, several seasons abroad, doing concert work, several seasons with the Chicago Civic Opera and then a return to the Metropolitan has been his record, giving him one of the richest operatic experiences of the modern singers.

As a setting for a singer, the newly renovated Empire should be ideal. Just the right size, the new lighting and ventilation systems will add greatly to the comfort of the audience.

Among those who have already booked seats are: Lady Barnard, Lady Lake, Mrs. Walter Nichol, Mrs. Curtis Sampson, Rupert Guthrie, Mr. Parbough, Mrs. George, Mrs. Beals, Mrs. Jameson, Miss O'Leary, Miss M. Clay, Mrs. Westinghouse, Miss Dennis, Dr. and Mrs. John, Mr. Wickert, and many others.

CONDITIONS AID LIFE INSURANCE

A. Gordon Nairn is speaker at Victoria Underwriters' Association Luncheon

That life insurance would capitalize on business conditions of the past four years and the Canadian people were now more fully conscious of the value of life insurance, was brought out by A. Gordon Nairn, Toronto, field supervisor of the Canadian Life Underwriters' Association yesterday. He was speaking at a luncheon meeting of the Victoria Life Underwriters' Association in Speedie's Cafe.

Mr. Nairn reviewed the work of his association during the past year. He enumerated the reforms in the life insurance profession carried out by the organization. The speaker told that better-type men were now selling life insurance and that less desirable salesmen were losing their standings.

CO-OPERATIVE SPIRIT

Mr. Nairn declared that today there existed a closer spirit of co-operation between the salesmen and the companies. This had been brought about mainly through the work of his organization. Educational problems were being tackled by leading salesmen now, as a direct comparison to previous years, when this phase of the business was not stressed, declared the speaker.

It was announced by William Okell, chairman of the committee, that a membership drive for the Canadian association would be held during October. J. R. Nicholson, president.

Victorians Hold 7,711 Receipts, as Against 10,257 at End of Last Fiscal Year

Radio licences issued in Canada since the end of the last fiscal year total 533,770, as against 512,335 in effect at the end of the 1934-35 period, according to figures announced by E. J. Haughton, district superintendent. The province leading in the number of live licences just now is Ontario with 237,667 as against 342,394 for the preceding twelve-month period. Quebec is next, while British Columbia comes third with 50,076 compared with 70,789 for the last-yearly period. The Yukon is low with 169.

Among the cities of the Dominion, Montreal is first with 102,317, Toronto next with 71,619, Winnipeg third with 28,794, and Vancouver fourth with 27,426. In the preceding term Montreal had 128,858, Toronto 67,967, Winnipeg 37,139, and Vancouver 34,921.

At the present time there are 7,711 paid-up licences in Victoria, the total at the end of the 1934-35 fiscal period being 10,257. Among all centres Trail had almost as many paid-up licences at the end of August as was the case in the preceding period. Now there are 1,264 in the smaller town, and when the last fiscal year closed, there were 1,209.

U.S. Golfers Gain One-Sided Victory In Ryder Cup Golf

Defeat Visiting British Golfers, Nine Matches to Three at Ridgewood—Americans Won Three of Four Foursomes and Five of the Eight Thirty-Six-Hole Singles

RIDGEWOOD, N.J., Sept. 29 (AP).—The professional golf team supremacy was restored to the United States today, when a band of American shotmakers defeated a British side nine matches to three, and recaptured the $15,000 gold international Ryder Cup.

This was the fifth biennial meeting between the players of the two nations since the competition was instituted in 1927. In the four previous matches the Britons won twice at home, in 1929 and 1933, and the Americans won in this country in 1927 and 1931. Thus, by the outcome of today's match, the Americans gained a 3-2 upturn in the series.

WIN FIVE MATCHES

With a 3-1 lead to work on as the result of yesterday's Scotch foursomes, the Americans today won five out of eight thirty-six-hole single contests, lost one, and broke even in two others. But for the staggering collapse of Horton Smith who, on the third nine against Bill Cox, after leading by six holes, lost seven straight, the Yankees might have won 10 to 2. This contest ended in a draw.

The Britons' victory was turned in by the veteran Percy Allis, who nosed out Craig Wood on the thirty-sixth green.

American victories were scored in the rival open-championships. Alfred Perry, of England, and Sam Parks, Jr., of Pittsburgh, also played to no decision.

SEATTLE BOYS TO BOX HERE

Matchmaker Tommy Drysdale Lining Up Good Card for Tomorrow Evening

Boxing fans who wend their way to the Tillicum gymnasium tomorrow evening to witness the mixed boxing and wrestling card to be presented by the Victoria Athletic Club, should all in on one of the most attractive programmes presented here for many a day.

Matchmaker Tommy Drysdale has been busy during the past few weeks lining up a number of leading Seattle glove-throwers for the past two weeks, and it begins to look as if the local boxers are in for a rough time.

Confirmation of the arrival here of Wesley Hayes, colored sensation, for a match with Murray Patrick, Canadian, Pacific Northwest and British Columbia heavyweight champion, is expected hourly. Al Neff, manager of the Seattle boy, will arrive back in the Sound City today, with his protegee, who last night fought at Portland.

CAREY TO FIGHT

Rex Carey, British Columbia middleweight champion, and one of the most promising boys at his weight in the province, has been matched with "Duke" Heiskanen, Seattle puncher. Carey has chalked up twelve successive victories, and tomorrow hopes to add the scalp of the Sound City fighter to his already impressive list.

Bobbie Parker, another well-known local boxer, has been signed to meet Frank Burtis, sweet punching Seattle fighter, in what should be a good mix. Al McKinnon has been training Parker for the past two weeks, and the local boy is reported to be in the best of condition.

Other boxers and wrestlers who will appear on the programme, include Dick Darby, Frank Clarkson, Reggie Hopkins, Bud Kirchin, George Lowe, Vic Stevens, Percy Tyson, "Blondie" Reid, Billy Thornburn, Bill Knowles and Bill Mosley. The first mix will start at 8:30 o'clock.

Uplands Women Elect Officers

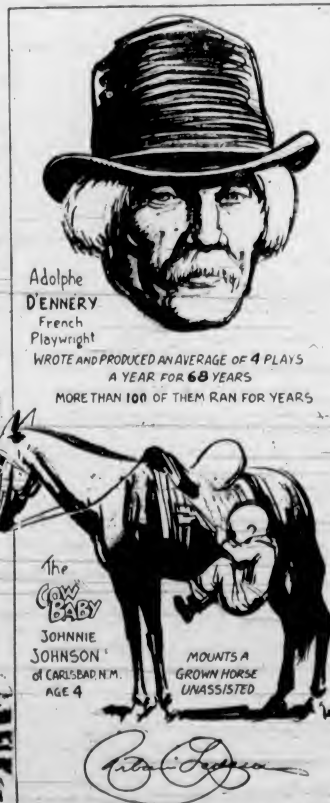

Officers and committee of women members of Uplands Golf Club were elected by acclamation at the annual meeting at the clubhouse recently and are as follows: Captain, Mrs. E. Woodcroft; secretary, Mrs. E. Watson; committee, Mrs. E. Mackenzie, Mrs. G. B. Hope and Mrs. E. M. Cuppage. Reports and minutes were read, and a vote of thanks was tendered the retiring officers.

A new trophy, to be known as the Windsor Cup, will be competed for by players with handicaps of 27 to 36, on Tuesday, October 22.

The committee announced that a ladies' invitation day would be held on Monday, October 21. Members may invite one guest. Prizes for visitors' best net score, and for "hidden hole" will be given for competitors holding current C.L.G.U. handicaps.

TWENTY QUINTETTES WILL SEEK LAURELS IN VICTORIA LEAGUE

Blue Ribbons, Canadian Champions, Only Entry in Men's Senior "A" Division—Largest Entry in Intermediate "A" Section With Eight Squads—Few New Teams

With twenty quintettes entered, the Victoria and District Basketball League will get under way on Wednesday, October 9, according to the official announcement made yesterday evening by Secretary Frank Elliott.

The largest entry is in the intermediate "A" men's section, where eight quintettes, including the Dealt, last season's city and Vancouver Island champions, who will play under the name of the Island Tug & Barge "Red Stacks," will battle for the honors.

Victoria Blue Ribbons, Canadian men's senior "A" champions, are the only entry in this section and automatically become the city champions. Hoyle-Brown, 1934-35 city and Vancouver Island titleholders, lead the "B" Section entry along with Lake Hill, West Road and Tillicum Athletic Club.

While there are only a few new clubs in the association, a number of players making their debut with the Victoria Basketball League will be seen in action when the season's play gets under way.

Chinese Students, smart cage squad from the Sunday School League, have entered the intermediate "A" Section and will be considered a dangerous contender for the honors from the start of the campaign.

ENTRY LIST

The complete entry list, giving the teams and the sections in which they will compete, follows: Men's Senior "A"—Victoria Blue Ribbons.

Men's Senior "B"—Hoyle-Brown, last season's champions; Lake Hill, West Road and Tillicum Athletic Club.

Men's Senior "C"—Doo-Dads, Hudson's Bay and 16th Canadian Scottish.

Intermediate "A" Boys—Island Tug & Barge "Red Stacks," last season's Dealt, city and Vancouver Island champions; Lynn Patrick's Aces, Regents, Copp's Shoe Store, Chinese Students, Trade-ats, Foster's Fur and Kingham-Gillespie.

Senior Women—Panorium and Units.

Intermediate "A"—Girls—Kresge, last season's Cardinals, and Burnside.

Entries for the Vancouver Island knockout may be sent to Wally Yeamans or left at Hocking & Forbes, sporting goods store, Douglas Street.

FLIGHT. by W. D. TIPTON and J. H. MASONTHE BIG SHIP DOCTOR

CAPT. W. KENNETH EBEL WAS THE FIRST PILOT TO FLY THE BIGGEST SHIP IN THE U.S.A. THE MARTIN CLIPPER SHIP.

AS ASSISTANT CHIEF ENGINEER FOR MARTIN, HE SUPERVISED ITS DESIGN, MADE ITS INITIAL TEST FLIGHT AND PERFORMANCE TESTS, THEN TAUGHT PAN-AMERICAN AIRWAYS PILOTS TO FLY IT.

HE JOINED THE CATERPILLAR CLUB TWO YEARS AGO WHEN A DIVE BOMBER CARRYING A 2000 POUND TORPEDO WENT INTO A FLAT SPIN ON A TEST FLIGHT.

KEN Ebel is one of the very few aeronautical engineers who has to take his own creations into the air for the first time to see if they will fly. His big moment was the day he took the Pan-American Martin clipper ship up for its first trial. His firm had spent over a year in engineering studies before a single piece of America's biggest airplane was built. Nearly another year was spent in building the first plane. Two other partially constructed giants were in the shop awaiting word of possible changes following the initial test flight. And to top it all the Glen Martin had over $300,000 invested in the first ship. After a day spent in taxiing on the water to get the feel of the big ship, Ebel squared away into the wind and opened the throttles of all four 800-horsepower engines. After a short run of less than 100 yards, much to the surprise of everyone, including the pilot-designer, the $1,000,000 plane lifted from the Chesapeake Bay and history was made. Then began a long and tedious series of tests during which Ebel analyzed and corrected one minor bit of trouble after another. Finally all the "bugs were ironed out" and the ship was turned over to representatives of the Department of Commerce, who supervised its official tests, one of which was a flight carrying a gross load of 51,000 pounds, the greatest load ever lifted into the air from the American continent.

TO SEPARATE THE SHEEP FROM THE GOATS

To separate the sheep from the goats—to draw the line between the good and the bad—is not always an easy task.

Sometimes the job is left for God Himself as in the line which furnishes the inspiration for the metaphor.

We have this thought from Matthew xxv, 32.

"And before I go, I will gather all nations, and I will separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from his goats."

LIFT MARRIAGE BAN

LONDON (P.)—The recent lifting of the marriage ban against women teachers and women doctors under the London County Council, is likely to be followed by the council allowing women clerks to keep their jobs after marriage.

Bobby, who had just started school, was proudly telling his aunt about his school work. She asked him a few questions which he could not answer correctly.

"Well," Bobby's aunt said, "You'll simply have to learn to concentrate."

"Oh! Aunt Mary, we haven't taken that up yet; we're only reviewing."

GLINZ LAKE IS BOUGHT AS CAMP

Y.M.C.A. Directors Complete Negotiations for Purchase of Sooke Property

Purchase of Glinz Lake by the Y.M.C.A., as a permanent campsite of the association, was announced yesterday by directors, following the annual gathering of leaders, Sunday, at the Sooke Summer home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jamieson.

Since acquiring the site, located about twenty miles from the heart of Victoria, a committee of the association, headed by W. T. Strath, chairman of the boys' work department, has been negotiating for purchase of the property. Eight years ago the camp was located at Beaver Lake, but was closed some time ago. More recently camp sites had been set up near Sooke, but erection of private summer homes caused Y.M.C.A. officials to seek a more isolated place.

FRIEND DONATES $2,000

The property was secured after considerable negotiations had been carried out. After the July camp of the association at Glinz Lake, the property occupying about 340 acres, Mr. Strath and his committee took out an option to buy until September 15. However, funds were not forthcoming in sufficiency to meet the purchase price and the option was extended until October 1.

Meanwhile, Mr. Strath contacted an anonymous friend of the association, who donated $2,000, which covers the price of the property. Buildings will be erected on the land before the camp opens next year.

What Today Means

"LIBRA"

If October 1 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9:15 to 11:15 a.m. from 1:15 to 3:15 p.m. and from 4:15 to 6:15 p.m. The danger periods are from 7:15 to 9:15 a.m. from 11:15 a.m. to 1:15 p.m. and from 4:15 to 6:15 p.m. It will pay to keep yourself in a receptive frame of mind to receive worthwhile ideas, good advice, and suggestions that may lead to constructive thinking. Influences conducive to doing things hurriedly this day must be guarded against for whatever you do in haste may require a lot of time to do over again properly. "Slow, but sure" is a good motto to keep in mind throughout the day. Avoid using haphazard methods in business, and do not procrastinate in attending to correspondence, telephone calls or giving orders attention. Should an unreasonable demand be made it might be wise to resort to diplomacy, rather than an abrupt refusal to comply. You may feel an urge to express yourself bluntly regarding a personal matter, but it probably will be good judgment to remember Burleighs said, "Silence is an answer to a wise man." Should you not approve of someone's ideas regarding some social form of activity, it might be tactful to think twice before saying so. Married and engaged couples, and those striving to win a matrimonial prize, should try not to keep anyone in suspense where an answer is desired.

If a woman and October 1 is your birthday, you perhaps imagine that people are always ready to criticize you, or your motives. There is nothing unfairer to relatives or friends than to attribute unkind thoughts to them, when they are probably remote from their consideration. Have confidence that you are doing the right thing, and there will be no need to worry about anyone's opinion, with the result that a happy, contented mind will eliminate suspicion. You have many fine qualities, and a great deal of inherent ability. As a teacher, musician, artist, writer, clerical worker or saleslady you should be able to secure financial independence. You have the qualifications essential to a happy married life.

The child born on October 1 requires, during adolescence, much loving attention and encouragement.

If a man and October 1 is your natal day, you may be inclined to bite off more than you can comfortably chew. Learn to concentrate on the work you have on hand, and your success probably will be assured. A wife, confided in, can be of the greatest assistance to you in your career. Journalism, printing, publishing, manufacturing and selling are lines of activity in which you should meet with much success.

The motorist who had just run over a hen in a country lane was eager to compensate the farmer for his loss.

"I suppose five shillings will square things," he said.

The farmer was about to take the money when he paused.

"No, sorry," he said, "I don't think that's enough. You'd best make it ten bob. I have a rooster that thought a mighty lot of that hen and the shock may kill him, too."
